URANUS

House	Outcome
6	You may suffer from extreme nervous tension and strange accidents on the job. Your appearance and manner of dress are apt to be quite unusual. You like the kind of work that has irregular hours, is different, and has a lot of variety. You are a good worker, but must watch out so that you do not overwork.
7	You and/or your partner are generally unconventional and you do things for their shock appeal. Plenty of freedom is desired in the relationship and there may be a lack of desire for commitment. Any need to control the other person in your relationships will probably lead to disaster. You meet the most interesting and unconventional people in your life. You probably seek a partner who provides the thrills and spills for you in your life. A partner who challenges you mentally and emotionally is desired. Someone who is inventive, individualistic, creative, original, out-going, eccentric or radical appeals to you. Your approach to marriage may be highly idealistic or utopian and there may be an inclination to favor platonic unions.
8	You have strong psychic feelings and a keen intuition. You perhaps have unconventional ideas about life, sex and death. The afterlife is a great mystery for you and you may seek to probe for answers. You may experience difficulties through nervous tension. Sudden loss or gain could come about with other people's resources.
9	Mental journeys in the form of dreams, visions, intuition and prophecies are possible. Your mind ever seeks to expand, gain knowledge and journey where it has never gone before. Too much mental activity, though, can cause nervousness and perhaps lead to a mental breakdown.

URANUS

House	Outcome
10	You are not a conformer and do not wish a career that is stable, uneventful and commonplace. Your rebellious nature may cause you to do the opposite of what you are told to do in your line of work. Sudden changes in job fortune are probable. A career in electronics, computers, invention, metaphysics or mechanics is possible.
11	You make friends easily, but prefer many acquaintances with only a few intimate friends. Your friends may see you as being somewhat aloof. You could be quite a rebel or reformer and it would be best if you use these energies along constructive lines rather than the opposite. Unusual friendships with unusual people are indicated.
12	You have a tendency to feel that something is going to "get" you, to sneak up on you, if you are not careful. It is as though you always have a sense of impending doom. You need to overcome this apprehension. Self-control must be developed. Unresolved difficulties in your subconscious mind need to be brought out and disposed of.

Concept of Vedha

- The concept of vedha is very important in transit analysis.
- Vedha means to pierce and hence can mean the power of a planet to influence a favourable or unfavourable result.
- While in normal transits of planets, vedha of other planets can nullify the benefic or malefic influences, in Sarvatobhadra Chakra, the Vedha shows the influence of transiting (or natal) planets on various nakshtras, signs, tithis, aksharas etc.
- The vedha of benefics are considered to be favourable and that of malefics are considered as unfavourable.
- The influence is stronger if they are exalted and retrograde while weaker if they are debilitated.
